One Platform. Every Payment

Built for Africa's Digital Economy

Collections, payouts, settlements, and reconciliation.
All in one platform.

Kenya leads Africa in digital payments, yet businesses still face fragmented systems, delayed settlements, disconnected payment channels, and manual reconciliation processes.

Managing collections, payouts, and reporting across multiple providers creates operational complexity that slows growth. PayKit was built to unify payments, money movement, settlements, and reconciliation through one seamless platform.

About PayKit

PayKit is a CBK-regulated payments platform offering unified APIs and infrastructure for collections, payouts, settlements, and money movement across mobile money and banking rails.

From merchant collections and till payments to enterprise payouts and embedded financial workflows, PayKit powers seamless money movement through one connected platform.

Our Vision

To be Africa's most trusted payments infrastructure - empowering businesses and individuals with seamless, secure, and reliable financial access.

Our Mission

To unify mobile money, banking, and digital commerce through one platform that simplifies collections, payouts, wallet management, and reconciliation for businesses.

Our Values

Interconnectivity
Connects seamlessly across mobile money providers, banks, and payment channels.

Accessibility
Creating affordable and easy-to-use financial infrastructure for businesses of every size.

Reliability
Fast, secure, and always-on infrastructure that businesses depend on

Localization
Built around the realities of African businesses, merchants, and consumers

"Digital payments in Kenya have largely solved access. The next frontier is scale, efficiency, and real-time settlement.

Businesses need integrated infrastructure that moves money faster, reconciles automatically, and keeps them operating.

This is what PayKit has built."

Beatrice Okeyo,
CEO, PayKit Kenya
